Your Data

NPP Installations uses and stores personal data in hard and electronic formats. The personal data we hold includes names, e-mail addresses and telephone numbers and in the case of my suppliers bank account details, these are used for business purposes only.

The only data that will be shared with third parties is delivery addresses if needed to facilitate delivery of goods.

We retain the information for up to at least 7 years as part of what is required with respect to the retention of financial information.

We never sell or give personal data to third parties for direct mailing purposes.
